

STEPHANIE A. JIRARD
Criminal Justice Department
Shippensburg University

Education

M.A. in Applied History, Shippensburg University, Shippensburg, PA	December 2012
J.D., Boston College Law School, Newton, MA	May 1990
A.B. in History, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY	January 1987

Employment

Certified Professional Coach Carlisle, PA, Present	Jackenn Enterprises, LLC
Prepare clients for professional success by providing training for job interviews, review for powerful communication résumés, cover letters, and applications for all types of employment and admissions.
Professor of Criminal Justice Shippensburg, PA, Present - August 2003	Shippensburg University
Design, develop, and teach undergraduate and graduate courses in law-related criminal justice courses. Coach to the Shippensburg Mock Trial Team.
Adjunct Professor Carlisle, PA, 2017, 2013-2007	The Pennsylvania State University, Dickinson School of Law
Taught first, second, and third year law students Professional Responsibility, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Advocacy I and II, and Death Penalty Practice.
Assistant Public Defender Columbia, MO, 2003-2000	Missouri State Public Defender, Capital Litigation Unit
Represented at trial indigent clients facing the death penalty. Responsible for all phases of a capital trial, from jury selection to sentencing.
Assistant Federal Public Defender Boston, MA, 2000-1998	Federal Public Defender
Represented at trial indigent clients faced with federal crimes. Litigated all phases of federal trials.
Assistant United States Attorney Boston, MA, 1998-1997	United States Attorney's Office
Represented the United States in civil and criminal forfeiture actions. Successfully forfeited over $100,000 in illegal drug assets.
Trial Attorney Washington, D.C., 1997-1994	United States Department of Justice, Civil Division, Torts Branch
Represented the United States in environmental tort suits in federal courts nationwide.
Lieutenant New Orleans, LA/Washington, D.C. 1994-1990	United States Navy, Judge Advocate General's Corps
Represented sailors and Marines at courts-martial and, as part of the Bureau of Naval Personnel Headquarters Child Abuse Review Team, advised senior command staff.

Licenses

Massachusetts (1990); Louisiana (1992); U.S. Supreme Court (1994); Missouri (1999, inactive 2017).